Before You Apply: What to Have Ready

A reference list to help you prepare. Keep these items available for your own review; this checklist does not collect information or start an application.

- [ ] Contact information

  Both spouses' contact information and your preferred language.

- [ ] Existing papers

  Any existing court papers, case numbers and notices you have received.

- [ ] Key dates and facts

  Your marriage date and separation date, plus the facts and directions you want us to use.

- [ ] Property and debts

  Basic awareness of your property and debts. Do not send account numbers or financial records with this checklist.

- [ ] Service scope and payment

  Review the flat-fee service packages, included work, limits and payment terms. Have your payment method available when you choose to apply.

- [ ] Review, sign and respond

  Be ready to review drafts, sign required documents and respond during the process.

- [ ] The notice and application sequence

  Read the Notice to Consumer, service terms and LDA contract information. Review the application carefully before submitting it.

Have a hearing or deadline soon?

Looking for help does not extend a deadline. If you need advice about how to respond, contact a licensed attorney promptly.
