

California Superior Court Family Law Directory

Official websites, family law clerk contacts, hours, and visitor information for all 58 California counties.

This is a Fast Divorce information resource. It is not an official court form or court-issued directory, and it is not legal advice.

Educational and informational purposes only. Court information can change. Visit the official court website or contact the courthouse directly for current official notices and procedures. Filing locations and submission methods vary; confirm the correct location and procedure with the court.

Review date: Court contacts, hours, and visitor notes were reviewed September 6, 2026. Later link tests do not mean that court hours or staffing were re-verified.

How to use this directory

Use the county bookmarks in your PDF reader, or find the county name with Search. Each county has its own page.

Click an official website URL to visit that court directly. Phone links use the base number only. Read any extension or menu instructions separately.

Clerk contacts concern court administration. Other email addresses are labeled by purpose and must not be treated as clerk filing inboxes.

All hours are Pacific Time. Holidays, temporary notices, appointments, and the type of service can affect availability.

The listed courthouse is informational. It does not determine legal venue, the correct filing location, or an authorized method for submitting documents.
