Your document preparation starting point

Help us understand the administrative work you are requesting. Fast Divorce is an LDA company, not a law firm, and does not provide legal advice.

Using this worksheet

These are original, editable preparation tools. They are not court forms, legal advice, signed agreements, or substitutes for your own attorney.

Complete only the information relevant to the task. Leave uncertain answers open. Do not place account numbers, identification numbers, private safety details, or children's addresses in a general worksheet.

Use the provider's approved private communication route for sensitive information. Decide what can be shared before distributing a completed worksheet.

Service or receipt record
Court notice, hearing or deadline
Existing agreement or order

What have you already completed, and what remains unclear?

Questions that may need an attorney or court self-help resource

Do not guess a service date or deadline. Bring the actual record. A pending conversation or mediation does not itself pause court deadlines. Legal choices, rights, strategy and advice belong with an appropriate attorney.
